

Diversity Conference

Global Mobility - Aligning Your Business with the Talent Agenda

February 13, 2015, 6:30 pm

University of Mannheim, Mannheim Palace, East Wing 0 138

In this phase of globalization the world is connected more than ever, and the power of collaboration is driving the business objectives and agenda of organizations. Being present as well as remaining connected is creating new ways of making business and establishing a new working culture. This means for organizations to innovate and develop their people agenda and align their business with the talent agenda.
